

ATLANTA BUSINESS LEAGUE
Women of Vision

Dear ABL Members & Friends:

For many years, the Atlanta Business League (ABL) has recognized business owners, professionals, community and civic leaders in Metropolitan Atlanta. This year the Atlanta Business League will publish its list of Atlanta's 100 Most Influential Black Women for 2009 during the 14th Women of Vision Breakfast on Tuesday, February 24, 2009, 8:00 a.m. at the Hyatt Regency Atlanta.

The list reflects the names of black women in metro Atlanta communities who have reached senior level positions within their profession, are leading entrepreneurs in their industry, have proven history-making feats or have attained the ability to influence large public bodies politically and in government. In addition to professional accomplishments, the "100 Most Influential Women" have demonstrated their commitment to the citizenry of Metro Atlanta by maintaining significant involvement and participation in community and civic activities. Each "100 Most Influential Women" honoree will receive a pin commemorating her selection.

Our goal is to provide an educational opportunity for individuals at all levels from middle school to corporate America to meet and interact with women in leading and history making positions throughout Metro Atlanta. For many it is a source of hope displaying living examples and an enlightening experience to know that opportunities avail themselves for African-American women. The League believes that it is our responsibility to include this effort as a part of its information clearinghouse initiative.

If you or someone you know would like to be considered as one of Atlanta's 100 Most Influential Women, please complete and return the enclosed nominee application along with a head shot photo by Tuesday, February 3, 2009 to Atlanta Business League, Attention: Nominations, P.O. Box 92363, Atlanta, GA 30314 or email to cjohnson@atlantabusinessleague.org. All finalists will be notified no later than Monday, February 9, 2009

We look forward to you joining us for the 14th Annual Women of Vision Breakfast.

Sincerely,

Leona Barr-Davenport
President & CEO
