

Eric K. Greenwood
Region Manager
Atlanta Gas Light

Eric Greenwood joined Atlanta Gas Light in 2003 and was appointed Regional Manager of the Atlanta, Peachtree and Conyers Service Centers. His current responsibilities include managing all service center activities associated with distribution, service and meter reading departments and ensuring safe, reliable and economical delivery of natural gas to over 400,000 customers. He is responsible for service center compliance with all applicable federal, state, local, and company rules and regulations. Prior to AGL, Eric held numerous managerial positions at the Pepsi-Cola Company.

Eric has been married 15 years to Veronica Greenwood and they have two children, Elijah 13 and Velicity 8. They are members at Andrews Chapel United Methodist Church in Jonesboro, Georgia.

Eric has served his community by participating in multiple charitable events and organizations including, Kiwanis, Vacation Bible School, Board Member-Red Cross, High School Tutorial, Junior Achievement, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Habitat for Humanity, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Atlanta Union Mission, American Heart Foundation, Black Managers Association, March of Dimes, Frank Ski Kids Foundation, Toys for Tots, and the Delta Sigma Theta Annual Scholarship.

Eric is from Meridian, Mississippi and he received his Engineering degree from Tuskegee University.