

SCARLET PRESSLEY-BROWN

General Manager, Global Diversity and Community Affairs,
Delta Air Lines

Scarlet Pressley-Brown is General Manager in Global Diversity & Community Affairs at Delta Air Lines. Joining Delta in June 2000, she has managed Delta's presence, establishing the company as a leading corporate citizen. Prior to Delta, Ms. Pressley-Brown spent six years with the East Lake Community Foundation as director of Community Affairs successfully restoring and revitalizing the historic East Lake Golf Course community. The restoration included the establishment and opening of Drew Charter School, Atlanta's first Charter School.

Ms. Pressley-Brown has received numerous awards: the "Outstanding Georgia Citizen" Award presented by the Secretary of State. In 2006, the Atlanta Business League named Mrs. Pressley-Brown one of "Atlanta's Top Black Women of Influence." In February 2006, the Atlanta Tribune featured Scarlet and husband, Wendell, as one of Atlanta's "Power Couples" and the Atlanta Urban League Guild recognized them with the "Transportation Achievement" Award.

Ms. Pressley-Brown received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication from Oglethorpe University in Atlanta and her MBA from University of Phoenix. She is on the board of directors for the Georgia Center for Children, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, The Atlanta Medical Association. She is a member of the National Black MBA Association, the Clark Atlanta Guild, the American Institute for Managing Diversity, and the 100 Black Women.

Scarlet and Wendell have five children and two son-in-law's: Wendell, Jr., April Partridge (Kenya), Amber French (Jason), Kiesha and Dexter.