

NEWS RELEASE

Contact: Leona Barr Davenport, 404.584.8126

For Immediate Release

Atlanta Business Women Vie for Atlanta Business League Honor

September 30, 2009 - Atlanta, GA. For the 25th consecutive year, the Atlanta Business League will honor outstanding African American businesswomen, including Rosalind Brewer, Walmart's Division President of Southeast Operations. The 25th Annual Super Tuesday luncheon takes place Tuesday, October 6, 2009, 12 Noon at the Atlanta Marriott Marquis.

In addition to Brewer receiving the Millennium Pacesetter Award, three finalists will vie for the top honor in the following five categories:

Outstanding Achievement (Woman of the Year)

DeShawn Bullard, President/CEO – Another Look

Mary Parker, President/CEO – All (n)1 Security services, Inc.

Stacey Scott, CEO – Elgia, Inc.

Success Against the Odds

Andrea Coffey CEO/President – Harvest House Children and Young Adult Foundation

Anissa Few, President/CEO – Anissa Few Agency/AYF Insurance Group, Inc.

Jean Rahman, Founder/CEO – The Institute of Financial Freedom & Investment Solutions, LLC

Non-Traditional Business Enterprise

Jacqui Steele, President – Steele Program Managers, LLC

Sonja Williams, President/CEO – ShockTheory Interactive, Inc.

Bettrena Williamson, Vice President/Licensed Funeral Director – Williamson Mortuary

Creative Style

Peggy Duncan, Owner – PSC Press

Jestacia Jones, Owner – J & J Image Group, DBA J'Lore

Sheri Riley, Founder/President – GLUE, Inc.

Home Based Business Achievement

Sherry Blackshear, Publisher/Founder – Swing Network

Kim Harrison, President – Key Point Marketing Consultants, LLC

Kidada Parker Muhammad, President/CEO – Simply The Best Events, Inc.

The luncheon is part of the Atlanta Business League's 25th Annual Super Tuesday Conference, which also consists of seminars and interactive sessions, a vendor exhibit hall, networking opportunities, AirTran Airways Business Class tickets auction, and the debut of the 2009-2010 Resource Guide to African-American Female Business Owners & Professionals.

The Atlanta Business League is led by the President & CEO, Leona Barr Davenport, and was established in 1933 as an affiliate of the National Business League, which was founded by Dr. Booker T. Washington. The ABL fosters the growth, creation, and development of successful business enterprises owned, operated and managed by African-Americans in metropolitan Atlanta.

For more details or to purchase tickets for the Super Tuesday conference and/or luncheon please contact the Atlanta Business League at 404.584.8126 or visit us online at www.atlantabusinessleague.org .

###