

C. DAVID MOODY, JR.

President & CEO, C.D. Moody Construction

David Moody founded C.D. Moody Construction in 1988. He is directly responsible and manages the day-to-day operations of C.D. Moody Construction by implementing policies, procedures, and organizational structure based on company-wide goals. He develops and communicates the annual company business plan to his staff and supervises all company activities, including procurement, operations and personnel administration.

Some of the company's notable projects include Philips Arena, the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Turner Baseball Field, Big Bethel Baptist Church and even Disney World in Orlando, Florida. The Morehouse Suites, parking deck and Merrill Hall/Technology Tower projects rank among the assignments the company has completed on the Morehouse campus.

Moody graduated from Morehouse in 1978 with a degree in Psychology, and later earned the Bachelor's of Architecture, a five-year professional degree, from Howard University. He also took graduate courses in Architecture at the University of Michigan, as well as graduate courses in Construction Management at Georgia Tech. In his ongoing quest for continued business success, Moody has also taken continuing education courses at Northwestern University's Kellogg School, an executive class on financial reporting for non financial managers at Emory University, and the MBE Business Owner, Executive Training Course at Dartmouth, Amos Tuck Business School.

Highly committed to community, Moody holds board memberships and involvement with many community groups. Namely, he has served as Commissioner for the State of Georgia Housing Trust Fund for the Homeless; Board Member of Wesley Wood for Senior Citizens' Housing; Finance Committee Wesley Wood; Member of Rotary, Downtown Atlanta Chapter; Kappa Boule/Service Fraternity SIGMA PI PHI; Citizen Trust Bank (Board Member); Children's Healthcare Foundation Board; Trustee, Stone Mountain First United Methodist; Morehouse College Business School Advisory Board; President of the National Association of Minority Contractor, Atlanta Chapter; Trinity House (Honorary Board Member). Through the C.D. Moody Construction Foundation, of which he is President, he has awarded over 80 scholarships, as well as established endowed scholarships at Morehouse College, Howard University and Central State University. He has participated in Leadership Georgia (1997) as well as Leadership Atlanta (1998).

In addition to being the recipient of numerous awards, Moody has also motivated and guided five new minority entrepreneurs into business. He has adopted Stoneview Elementary School and Stephenson Middle School, both in DeKalb County. Moody is a Certified Lay Speaker for the United Methodist Church, and also a business and motivational speaker at numerous events in the southeastern states.

