

Laron Walker

Laron Walker is an Atlanta native who graduated summa cum laude from Tennessee State University (TSU) with a bachelor's degree in Electrical and Computer Engineering. Later, he enrolled in Purdue University where he obtained his Masters of Science in the same area.

As an authority in web technologies, Laron helped launch a number of technology start-ups that targeted niche markets. Throughout his career, his main focus has been to help companies plan, develop and implement their online strategy using innovative technology approaches.

Laron has always had a flair for being an entrepreneur. He helped to start his first successful web development company while he was an undergraduate student. This company focused on designing and developing database driven websites and applications during a time when the technology was relatively new. A few years later, this company was dissolved and Fabulous Sites, Inc was formed with a focus on developing enterprise and custom web software applications.

As President and Chief Architect of Fabulous Sites, Inc. Laron has been instrumental in outlining a strategy to grow revenues, expand its workforce, develop key products and expand into international markets. The company currently operates its trade name, Sciberus™ and is based out of Decatur, Ga. Sciberus is a Microsoft Partner with an ISV competency.

Laron is also the CEO of Time2Give, Inc, a 501(c)3 that provides scholarships to high school seniors. He enjoys mentoring kids and has served on the Board of Directors for Family Services, Inc., an Indiana based Non Profit that helps families with domestic issues.
