Excellence, innovation, integrity and superior customer service are the core principles Yvonne Bryant Johnson has utilized to build her business, Bryant & Associates, LLC, an Atlanta-based Executive Coaching, Consulting and Training company. As President and CEO of the company since its inception in 1998, Ms. Johnson has skillfully utilized the business acumen gained from a 25+ year career in corporate America to help executives and organizations achieve their goals in sales, leadership development, and customer service.

Throughout her career, Ms. Johnson received recognition for successfully mentoring, coaching and developing high performance teams and individuals. She has served as Director of the Educational Opportunity Program at George Washington University and Branch Manager of AT&T’s Atlanta Customer Care Organization and Global Sales team. At AT&T, she attained Leading Legends and Leaders Council recognition—the top 2% of customer care and sales employees—for exceeding financial, people development and customer satisfaction objectives.

Leadership in professional, community and civic groups are essential to Ms. Johnson’s success. She was a member of the AT&T Alliance Leadership Council, a senior executive entity of the national Alliance of Black Telecommunications Employees. Ms. Johnson served on Church’s Chicken Minority Advisory Council composed of top business leaders. She is past board chair of the Youth Ensemble of Atlanta, past board president of Partnership Against Domestic Violence, board member of the Georgia Center for Child Advocacy and board president of SCELL (a Sickle Cell organization based out of the Grady Health System). Ms. Johnson is a 2004 graduate of the women’s leadership organization, Leadership America and a 1997 graduate of Leadership Atlanta. In 2004, Ms. Johnson served as emcee of High Tech Ministries’ Annual Prayer Breakfast with over 1700 attendees.

Ms. Johnson graduated with honors from Spelman College, where she was later recognized as one of the first alumnae to receive the Alumnae Achievement Award in the area of Business (1996). She received an MBA from Emory University, attended Johns Hopkins University and the Universities of London and Ghana.
